

Welcome to THE NATURE CONSERVANCY'S MCCARRAN RANCH PRESERVE

You are entering private property and an active Nature Conservancy restoration site.

This preserve is open from dawn to dusk.

©Tim Torell / The Nature Conservancy

THINGS TO DO:

- Hike
- Bicycle
- Fish (Consult Nevada State Fishing Regulations)
- Picnic
- Observe and enjoy nature
- Keep dogs on leash and clean up after
- Pack out your trash

PLEASE NO:

- Camping
- Lighting of fires or use of fireworks
- Horses
- Motor vehicles
- Hunting or discharge of firearms
- Dumping of waste
- Removal of plants or animals
- Research projects without prior approval from The Nature Conservancy
- Organized events or commercial use without prior approval from The Nature Conservancy

For your safety and to protect vegetation and wildlife, please stay on designated trails. In case of emergency, please call 911.

In case of non-emergency issue or to report misuse of the McCarran Ranch Preserve, please call 775.322.4990 x 3115.

As this is an active Nature Conservancy restoration site, please pay attention to additional temporary signage throughout the preserve. For more information: www.nature.org/nevada

The Nature
Conservancy

Protecting nature. Preserving life.™